PROGRAM: "Feeling Spring"

Darcie Garcia, AIFD, head designer of Rich Mar Florist in Allentown, PA, will present Spring designs that intrigue the sense of touch. Moss, ferns and florals come together to invite interaction. Darcie has served on the local Teleflora Education board for the last 15 years, and for the last decade has participated on both award-winning exhibits at the Philadelphia Flower Show and on the Designer Studio stage there. She was honored to be on the team with the White House staff for the Singapore state dinner in Washington, DC, in 2016.

APRIL 14, Tuesday..... HORTICULTURE WORKSHOP 10:00 AM

Visit David L. Culp's Brandywine Cottage, listed in the Smithsonian Institution Archives of American Gardens and featured in Martha Stewart Living and on HGTV. David has developed the Brandywine Hybrid strain of hellebores and was cited in The Wall Street Journal for his expertise on snowdrops.

Fee $10. Moderate walking.
