

OCTOBER 2019

---

OCTOBER 9, Wednesday ..... BRING-A-FRIEND MEETING 1:00 PM
Fairview Village Church, 3044 W. Germantown Pike, Eagleville, 19403
Light refreshments will be served at 12:30 PM

GREETERS: Honey Bawduniak, Jessica Milleo

HOSPITALITY: Gwen Bryant, Beth Bynon, Jill Evans, Ginger Hunsicker, Jane Klotz, Anne O'Brien, Elaine Smith

*****

70th Holiday House Tour: Tickets Available for Purchase
**Sign up to decorate and/or hostess****

*****

PRESENTATION OF LANDSCAPE DESIGN AWARD
Flossie Narducci

PROGRAM: "Public Gardens – Their Mission and Need"

Bruce Crawford, Director of Rutgers Gardens, will address how the focus of Public Gardens has shifted from medicinal plants 400 years ago, to Victorian-era lavish displays and ever more showy cultivars, and is turning now to the needs of the community increasingly focused on environmental issues and food insecurity.

SHOW OF THE MONTH: "The Music Man" – 1962

Horticulture: One chrysanthemum sprig in a container

Design: Traditional mass arrangement of fall colors.

Chairs: Priscilla Myers, Sue Bailey, Elaine Watters

OCTOBER 14, Monday.....HORTICULTURAL THERAPY 1:30 PM
Regina Nursing Center, 550 E. Fornance Street, Norristown, 19401
Chairs: Sandy Davis, Dottie MacDermott

OCTOBER 15, Tuesday.....HORTICULTURE WORKSHOP 10:00 AM
The Woodlands, 18th century estate of amateur botanist William Hamilton, was transformed into a rural Victorian cemetery in 1840. It now features a federal-style mansion and an arboretum of about 1000 trees. The Grave Gardener's volunteers plant Victorian era plants on cradle graves. 4000 Woodland Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19101. Fee $8. Carpool.
Chair: Trina Bayne, co-chairs: Caren Puschak, Jessica Milleo

OCTOBER 23, Wednesday.....FLOWER DESIGN WORKSHOP 10:00 AM
"What's my line?" Diane Powell will demonstrate a Line or Line-Mass Design.
Wissahickon Valley Public Library, 650 Skippack Pike, Blue Bell, 19422
Chairs: Barb Leiby, Barbara Andon